

About Us

About the President: Pete Bunner has been an entrepreneur since his early twenties. He has been President and owner of Premise Communication System and 50% owner and President of Doan Communications, LLC both in the Northeast, Ohio area. He also has personally been through 2 mergers and buyout of his ownership shares. A total of 5 businesses have been started and owned by Pete thus attributing to his understanding of business ownership. He also owns and lives on a hardwood tree farm outside the Richmond area. Pete still works with all of Ancilla's clients on a day to day basis and sees the services that they provide a great service that is needed in the life of most businesses. An old saying goes this way: Businesses start for a million different reasons but end three ways: death of the owner, bankruptcy or transfer to a new owner. I much rather end with a transfer to a new owner and enjoy the benefits of my hard work than the two alternate ways stated. Pete is always available and likes to answer questions that a business owner might have about selling his or her business. Pete's direct line is 740-765-5442 or his cell is 740-275-1082. His email address is pbunner@ancillallc.com How to Contact us: Ancilla, LLC is located in Richmond, Ohio. Where is Richmond Ohio? It is in the beautiful rolling hills of Eastern, Ohio. About the artwork on the website: All the photos on the web site are from the Hubbell Space Telescope or from other observatories. We decided to tie some of our other interests into the website rather than the canned look that comes with companies that provide service such as ours. Our header tries to express the handing of the baton to a new owner and the teamwork needed to accomplish this task. Where did the name of Ancilla, LLC come from? Ancilla in Latin means "a servant, an aid to achieving or mastering something difficult. It is the root word for ancillary."
